

REPORT

Of the Committee of Claims, in the case of Brintnel Robbins, with a Bill for his relief.

DECEMBER 22, 1823.

Read, and, with the Bill, committed to a Committee of the whole House, to-morrow.

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the petition of Brintnel Robbins,

REPORT :

That the petitioner states, he entered into contract with Thomas S. Jesup, agent for the United States, in the month of March or April, 1813, to build a number of boats, at Cleveland, in the state of Ohio ; in consequence of which agreement, he complains that he has sustained great loss, and asks to be remunerated.

For a history of this transaction, and of the loss sustained by Mr. Robbins, the Committee refer the House to a letter of General Jesup, addressed to the Honorable Mr. Plumer, of the House of Representatives, on the 6th of February, 1823, accompanying this Report.

The Committee are of opinion, that Mr. Robins is entitled to relief, and for that purpose report a bill.
